

Aspirational District Project - Haridwar and Rishikesh

09 - 12 November, 2022

Introduction:

The fellows from 9 – 11 November made a trip to the Uttarakhand region. The fellows, Sayok Sarkar, Dr. Shivani Modi, Siddharth Muthiyar, Sumit Gogwani, and Zahra Shetranjiwala left for Haridwar and Rishikesh to rejuvenate old connections that were built by the first fellows during their multiple visits to the aspirational district. The main objective of their maiden visit to the region was to get acquainted with the place and have meetings with the administration of the different schools, colleges, universities and educational institutes.

DAY 1

The fellows had an early morning breakfast and left for Patanjali University.

PATANJALI UNIVERSITY

An interaction took place with Dr V. K Katiyar, the dean of academics of Patanjali University where he briefly explained the work of IofC- Let's Make A Difference, and its presence in the world.

Dr V. K Katiyar arranged a meeting with Swami Arshdev. The values we are contributing to the society impressed Swami Arshdev and took the fellows to the Vedic Kanya Gurukulam in his car where they met Devaraniya. Hereafter an hour session on the four values and the concept of quiet time. The students shared their problems relating to the four values in which they expressed how often they lie, how their ego plays a huge part in their life and are dishonest to themselves while chanting the mantras.
