Mentor - Bhisham Mansukhani

Bhisham Mansukhani attended his first LMAD conference in 1998 as a student, since then he has been connected with the LMAD family. Over the years, Bhisham grew from participant to facilitator, also volunteering for IofC's University and International conferences.

Bhisham warmly accepted our invitation to spend a few days with the fellows, he stayed for a week at the LMAD home. Everyday the fellows had the privilege of freely engaging in the Quiet Time and other activities with him. The dynamic background of his profession along with his experience in being a coordinator gave the fellows deep insights on varied fronts. Bhisham guided the fellows to improve their skills like creative writing and public speaking with his minute observations.

The week-long stay of Bhisham came to an end on the November 16. As the first guest at the LMAD Home, he set the tone for growth with his constructive suggestions and his presence brought in a strong aura of knowledge for all.
